

A vibrant, travel-themed illustration. In the center is a brown suitcase with the text "Classe des petits" written on it. To the left of the suitcase is a red passport with "PASSPORT" and "P" visible. To the right is a white envelope with a red and blue striped border, a circular stamp, and the name "M. VERICEL". A green, round, cartoonish character with large black eyes and a small smile stands in front of the suitcase. The background is a light pink sky with white clouds, a red airplane flying, and a dotted line representing a flight path. Various travel items like photos of the Eiffel Tower and Big Ben, a red location pin, sunglasses, and a compass are scattered around the suitcase. The entire scene is set on a red and white checkered surface.
